

理想のエクステンポ FLOW SHEET

First of all, I'd like to start this speech with a little story.

イントロ、Why you、Thesis パート

That's the end of the story. ← ↑イントロで使える表現

This can be applied not only to A (this situation) but also to B. イントロの例を受けて

There is a proverb that clearly (relates to this story.) express the moral of the story. It is~

There is a proverb that has the opposite meaning.

And, I entirely agree (disagree) with this idea. ← ↑プロバークのトピックで使える表現

I'm giving this speech because~ at that moment (throughout this experience), I realized~

↑ワイユー (イントロから気づいたことや学んだことを抽出してメッセージにする)

So, today in order to ~ I'd like to speak about (spend another 3 min talking about) ~

After listening to my speech, I hope~ ← ↑シーズで使える表現

Indeed, this is a debatable issue (topic) for university students because....

(as is often the case with ~we tend to~)

So it's necessary for us to~ (tackle this problem) (think about it deeper)

So, it would be nice if~

Necessity パート

HARM: It is becoming a more serious problem because...

PHCS で行く場合

What complicates this problem is that

CAUSE: Then, how come (why is) such a problem is taking place?

This is exactly the cause of this problem

The reason why I think ~ is because ← リーズニング

PREP で行く場合

Let me explain this by telling you a general example (my personal experience)

This example clearly shows that~ ← ↑例を出すときに使える表現

So, please keep in mind that~ (is the key to) (important の多用を避けよう。) ← ポイント

Then, what is the key to realize it? What is important is to~ ← How で使える表現

This method is quite effective because~ ← ↓ワーカとプラカで使える表現

How パート

The first step you will need to make is~ because (this is scientifically proved that~) For example~

Following these suggestions will surely (bring you a great advantage) lead to a win-win because~

Furthermore, if you accept this plan, we can kill two birds with one stone.(一石二鳥)

So, ladies and gentlemen, today is the first day of the rest of your life, Why not start~ so that we can~.

Lastly, do(代動詞で強調の意味の do) remember one thing プロバーク
