

コトワザテスト

- (1)Perseverance kills the game. ()
- (2)Even Homer sometimes nods. ()
- (3)Spare the rod and spoil the child.()
- (4)Time flies like an arrow. ()
- (5)Ask not what your country can do for you, ask what you can do for your country.
()
- (6)Rome was not built in a day.()
- (7)The early bird catches the worm.()
- (8)Two heads are] better than one.()
- (9)It is no use crying over spilt milk.()
- (10)Like father, like son.()
- (11)What is learned in the cradle is carried to the grave.()
- (12)It's like casting pearls before swine.()
- (13)Seeing is believing.()
- (14)When in Rome, do as Romans do.()
- (15)Speech is silver, silence is gold.()
- (16)Time is money.()
- (17)Pudding before praise.()
- (18)An ass in lion's skin.()
- (19)Fortune comes in by a merry gate.()
- (20)The best of friends must part.()
- (21)Let the morn come and the meat with it.()
- (22)Heavy work in youth is quite in old age.()
- (23)There is no royal road to learning.()
- (24)Never put off till tomorrow what you can do today.()
- (25)He who is afraid of asking is ashamed of learning.()
- (26)Everything comes to him who waits.()
- (27)Joy and sorrow are today and tomorrow.()
- (28)He thinks that roasted larks will fall into his mouth.()
- (29)Misfortunes never come singly.()
- (30)Care killed the cat.()
- (31)Strike while the iron is hot.()
- (32)A cheap purchase is money lost.()
- (33)Leaning without thought is labor lost.()
- (34)Every miller draws water to his own mill.()
- (35)Love covers many infirmities.()
- (36)Jack of all trader is a master of none.()
- (37)Easier said than done. ()
- (38)More haste, less speed.()
- (39)Nothing ventured, nothing gained.()
- (40)Better late than never.()